Move to Jamf

Challenge: As the need for Mobile Device Management (MDM) becomes ever apparent, the number of MDM vendors has skyrocketed. But not all are built equally, leaving companies unsatisfied with their tool and looking to leave.

Are you one of them?

Whether your current vendor doesn't provide the support you expect or you simply require a more robust tool, switching MDM providers doesn't have to be overwhelming or painful. If you're considering a move to Jamf, you might need some help navigating the process and finding success.

Solutions

Re-enrolling devices is often a barrier to switching solution providers so Jamf offers different levels of assistance:

DIY

Jamf provides business and education ebooks to help educate customers on the steps involved in migrating MDM solutions if they want to do it on their own.

Professional Services

For more in-depth assistance, Jamf also provides device migration services through our professional services team. These talented and experienced engineers can help you meet your internal compliance standards using industry best practices making your migration process as seamless as possible without compromising on security.

Why consider Jamf in the first place?

Jamf is different than other MDM solution providers. More than 62,000 organizations rely on Jamf.

Here's why:

We are focused on helping organizations succeed with Apple. We understand Apple to its core and have mirrored the focus on user empowerment in our device management software.

We preserve the native Apple experience and integrate with all Apple applications and services so users can take full advantage of Apple and the intended Apple experience.

We have offered same-day support for all Apple releases for over a decade, ensuring customers can take advantage of new Apple operating system management and security workflows, as soon as they become available.

We built Jamf Nation, the largest Apple IT management community in the world, as a place for members of all skill levels and verticals to share best practices, learn skills, and support fellow admins.

We empower students with Apple technology around the world, including seven of the 10 largest U.S. school districts and 10 of the 10 best global ranked universities.
